PARKER CANNOT LIVE.

The Retired Contractor's Self-Inflicted Wound Is Fatal.

John Parker, the retired contractor, who attempted suicide vesterday afternoon in his bedroom at 1965 Bushwick avenue, Brooklyn, by shooting himself in the head with a revolver, is not expected to live many hours. Dr. Sidney Gardner, who is in attendance on the wounded man, said this morning that his patient was barely alive. Parker was suffering from a complication of diseases aggravated by a recent fall. On Saturday he overheard the doctor say to his sons that he (Parker) could not live much longer. He thereupon secured a revolver and shot himself in the head. The builet is supposed to have lodged in the brain. Parker is a widower and said to be quite wealthy. He lived with his married sons. ivenue, Brooklyn, by shooting himself ark Methodist Episcopal Conference will be ended to-morrow afternoon. All of the important work of the Conference remains to be done, and, with only a day and a half to do it in, extra sessions must be held.

The terms of six years of two of the Presiding Elders have expired. They are Rev. Dr. S. H. Hammond, of the Paterson district, and Rev. Dr. S. Van Benschoten, of the Newark district. These gentlemen would like to succeed each other but it is said that Mr. Hammond will become the Presiding Elder of the Newark district, and that his place will be taken by Rev. L. C.
